Scrutiny Review of Gambling

Summary

The next in-depth review on the Committee's work programme is to consider the scope and impact of gambling in Stockton-on-Tees.

The Committee is asked to consider a background presentation, and agree the scope for the review

Detail

1. The aim of the review is to conduct an investigation into the scale and effect of gambling in Stockton-on-Tees.
2. It is proposed that the review will consider the availability of information on local gambling activity, the types of activity, the licensing regime, and the relationships with local economic activity, health and wellbeing, and community safety.
3. To provide some initial background, attached at Appendix 1 is a briefing paper from the Responsible Gambling Strategy Board. Further information will be provided at the meeting.
4. The draft scope and project plan is attached at Appendix 2. Members are requested to consider and agree the scope of the review.
