REVIEW OF TEES ACTIVE

Summary

Members are asked to consider the additional information that is provided in relation to Tees Active's services for the Council's Looked After Children (LAC), and the results of benchmarking Tees Active's performance against similar leisure trusts elsewhere.

Detail

LAC

1. Members have previously been provided with statistics in relation to the usage of Tees Active leisure centres by children in care.
2. Further context to these figures has been provided by the Service Manager (Looked After Children) and this is outlined in the attached report.

Benchmarking

3. As part of the review, Members will be aware that benchmarking has been carried out in order to compare Tees Active performance with similar arrangements elsewhere. It is intended to present the results of this process at the meeting. The following authorities have agreed to provide information on the leisure trusts operating in their area:

- Chester City Council
- Kirklees Council
- Redcar & Cleveland Council
- Derwentside Council
- South Lakeland Council
