25/11      EIT Review of Children's Social Care

Members received a presentation from Head of Children and Young People's Operational Service with regard to Children's Social Care which included:-

- The current structure of the service and the main responsibilities of each team.
- The Legal framework within which the service had to operate.
- The current issues surrounding the service.
- Current significant workload pressures and budgetary overspend.
- The Key focus for the EIT review and draft scope.

Due to the complexity of the review, Members were also provided with a case study illustrating the different types of referrals and the processes they had to go through.

CONCLUDED that the presentation be noted and scope for the EIT review be approved.
