SSP National Treatment Agency (NTA) Regional Manager - Bev Oliver 155/09

Members were provided with a presentation by Bev Oliver and John Liddell from the National Treatment Agency (NTA) for Substance Misuse.

Members were informed that there were approximately 330,000 problem heroin and crack users in England. Two thirds of this figure were in treatment. The NTA's role was to get users into effective treatment. The Government spends £800m per year on treatment and the NHS spends £100m on needle exchange services.

Treatment was commissioned by 149 local partnerships. Most adults contact treatment services direct but some are referred by their GP or the NHS, some adults were picked up through the criminal justice system. The NTA monitors national standards.

Information was provided on the types of treatment available. The aim of the treatment was to overcome dependency and reduce the harm caused by drugs. Research by the NAO 2010 has found that for every pound spent on treatment will save the tax payer £2.50. NICE estimated that the crime and health costs of each injecting drug user was £480,000 over a lifetime.

Detail was provided on the outcomes of treatment and the Treatment Outcomes Profile (TOP) shows that:

- Two thirds of heroin users and half of crack users cut consumption significantly
- At least one third of either become abstinent

The NTA's goal was to get more users into treatment, help them overcome dependency and reintegrate into society.

Members were given the opportunity to ask questions regarding the service.

Waiting times for treatment were generally within a week, NHS guidelines were within 3 weeks.

Cllr Beall stated that all partners needed to be working together to ensure that the same message was portrayed across all services. He expressed concern about the methadone programme and ensuring that people become drug free and not by substituting one drug for another.

AGREED that the presentation and comments be noted.

Our Constitution provides that:

“Additional voting members may be invited to join the Partnership from time to time, subject to the inclusion of an appropriate item on the agenda, as circulated in advance of the meeting, and a simple majority of voting members in favour”. (item 4(i) refers)

Members discussed the matter and felt that a representative from one third sector organisation could mean that the third sector could be misrepresented. Members discussed ways to maximise third sector involvement when the partnership was meeting to discuss specific issues.

AGREED that the approach be declined and that the Partnership consider ways to invite third sector partners if required to any future meetings.
