3 Review of Bullying - Final Report

Members held discussion on the final report for their review of Bullying and were updated of discussions held during the tripartite meeting. Members queries had been clarified particularly in relation to the Sentinel system for recording incidents of bullying which would now be trialed with a number of schools in the first instance.

Members made some amendments to the recommendations and requested that as part of the six monthly review that it be identified how Schools were progressing with implementing a standard definition of bullying within their Schools.

Concluded that the Scrutiny Officer finalise the report and submit to Cabinet on 12th April 2007.
