Training in use of the database is being delivered by the ICT team during the summer term 2010.	2 - On Track	The training for the Reporting and Recording database has been delivered and pilot schools are now implementing the system. A review of the pilot is scheduled for early in the autumn term. The final system will be available to all schools with appropriate training during autumn 2010. The possibility of training other services, e.g. children's homes and youth groups in the use of the database, is being explored.	2 – On Track
