From 1.11.10 – Nigel Chilton, Principal Adviser for Inclusion | Summer 2011 | The training for the Reporting and Recording database has been delivered and pilot schools are now implementing the system. A review of the pilot is scheduled for early in the autumn term. The final system will be available to all schools with appropriate training during autumn 2010. The possibility of training other services, e.g. children's homes and youth groups in the use of the database, is being explored. | 2 – On Track | Seven schools are currently piloting the system and evaluation is ongoing with the ICT team supporting adjustments in the programme. The training for the system will be launched in Spring 2011. The Anti-Bullying steering group are exploring further opportunities for the database to be used within Children's Services. | 2 - Track |
