CYP Scrutiny Review of Employment and Education

50/13

The Committee reviewed a summary of evidence that had been presented to the Committee throughout the review. The review has sought to establish how education and business can work together to ensure that learning provision matches local industry need and will focus on the 14 – 19 age group (25 years for young people with learning difficulties and/or disabilities (LDD)).

The Committee had taken evidence in relation to three stands:

- Demand
- Provision and Performance
- Participation and Support

The Committee formulated draft recommendations which sought to encourage closer working between local businesses and employers, schools and post 16 education providers.

Members would receive the draft final report at the next meeting.

AGREED that the information be noted and that the recommendations be included in the final report for consideration at the next meeting of the Select Committee prior to submission to Cabinet on 24 April 2014.
