Officers: Michael Henderson, Peter Mennear, Jackie Ward, Martin Gray (SBC)

Also in attendance:

Apologies: Cllr Barbara Inman, Cllr Di Hewitt,

CYP 27/18 Evacuation Procedure, Audio Recording and Housekeeping Procedures

The Evacuation Procedure, Audio Recording and Housekeeping Procedures were noted.

CYP 28/18 Declarations of Interest

Cllr Evaline Cunningham declared a personal interest in item 4 'Scrutiny Review of the Child's Journey, as she served on the Board of Eastern Ravens Trust.

CYP 29/18 Scrutiny Review of the Child's Journey

The Select Committee considered a proposed Outline Scope for its review of the Child's Journey - putting children and young people at the heart of assessment, planning and decision making.

In addition a presentation was provided that:

- provided the rationale for the review
- looked at existing approaches and work around the child's journey.
- highlighted potential areas of consideration at future meetings.

Discussion:

- it was agreed that young carers and children with disabilities would provide useful input into this review.
- it was noted that the Council needed to ensure it was effectively listening to the voice of the child, and that changes in practice could be demonstrated, as a result.

RESOLVED that;

1. the outline scope for the review be agreed.
2. the presentation and discussion be noted.

CYP 30/18 Work Programme

Members considered the Select Committee's Work Programme.

Members noted that there were a number of topics still on the Committee's Work Programme and it was agreed that it may be necessary appropriate to gather evidence, on Reviews, outside of the formal Committee meetings.

RESOLVED that the Work Programme be noted.
