

AGENDA ITEM

REPORT TO CLEVELAND POLICE AND CRIME PANEL

6 AUGUST 2012

REPORT OF DIRECTOR OF LAW AND DEMOCRACY

CLEVELAND POLICE FORCE – POLICE AND CRIME PANEL – DRAFT INDUCTION PROGRAMME

SUMMARY

The purpose of this report is to provide Members with details of a draft induction programme for the Police and Crime Panel.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That the report be noted.
2. That the suggestions from the Panel regarding the delivery of the programme and possible future learning and development be noted and be the subject of future reports to this Panel.

INTRODUCTION

1. Attached at the Appendix is a copy of the draft Induction Programme for the Police and Crime Panel. It details specific areas in relation to the roles and duties of Panel Members.
2. The Panel are invited to discuss the options for the delivery of the programme. This could include 1 session summarising all areas, or this plus more detailed sessions on all or some of the elements of the programme. Alternatively a summary plus more detailed development provided by electronic / distance material which would need to be developed.
3. The Member Development Officer for Stockton is, and will continue to monitor and bring to the attention of the Panel, learning and development opportunities available in the wider market.
4. There will also be an opportunity for Panel members to discuss individual learning and development requirements specifically linked to their role on the Panel.

Name of Contact Officer: Margaret Waggott, Head of Democratic Services

Telephone No: (01642) 527064

Email Address: margaret.waggott@stockton.gov.uk

Name of Contact Officer: Joanne McGeeney, Principal Member Development Officer

Telephone No: (01642) 526186

Email Address: joanne.mcgeeney@stockton.gov.uk