Dear Applicant

Cleveland Police and Crime Panel

Thank you for your interest in becoming a non-political, independent member of Cleveland Police and Crime Panel.

The Panel is part of the governance and accountability arrangements for policing in the Cleveland force area. The Panel's role is to maintain a regular check and balance on the performance of the directly elected police and crime commissioner, Mr Barry Copping.

Due to a vacancy the Panel is looking for a committed and energetic person to serve as a non-political independent member from summer 2015 for a one year term. It is an exciting opportunity to be involved with these arrangements.

The role of a panel member is an important and demanding one. In considering your application you should be aware that the typical commitment required from a member of the panel averages one day every two months or so, including preparation time. Meetings are mostly held during normal office hours, or in the early evenings, and usually at the Municipal Buildings, Church Road, Stockton-on-Tees.
