CD 49/18 Review of Protection of Vulnerable Older Residents Living at Home

Members were informed that the Review of Protection of Vulnerable Older Residents Living at Home was introduced as an emergency issue at the Executive Scrutiny meeting and would be continue into the next year's Work Programme following the local elections.

The scope of work was agreed to capture issues around what services were available to vulnerable residents with a particular focus on those residents aged 80 year old and over.

The review would examine:

- Targeting elderly and vulnerable people who do not have family or involvement with any service
- Highlighting gaps in provision
- Communication with families of elderly people regarding their experience / involvement with services

AGREED:

The draft scope and project plan be approved.
