

Housing and Community Safety Select Committee

Review of the Neighbourhood Enforcement Service

Chair's Update to Executive Scrutiny Committee – 13 November 2007

Update on Progress (including issues/problems/successes)

Following approval of the Committee's final report on 27 September, the Neighbourhood Enforcement Service (NES) report was submitted and approved by Cabinet on 25 October. The Committee supported the use of mainstream funding to continue the Service and also recommended ways in which to source additional funds, and improve awareness of the Service.

Timescale for Review

The review was completed on schedule and the final report was presented to Cabinet on 25 October.

Monitoring

The Choice Based Lettings action plan was agreed by the Committee in June, and the progress report is due in December.
