

Environment Select Committee

Chair's Update to Executive Scrutiny Committee – 2 September 2008

Review of Customer First and Dog Fouling and Animal Welfare Service

Update on Progress (including issues/problems/successes)

At the next meeting on 22nd September 2008 (rescheduled from 1st September) the Committee will consider the draft report following the review of Customer First. The list of nine draft recommendations was presented and agreed at the meeting of the Committee on 21st July.

At the same meeting the Committee will also consider the scope of the forthcoming scrutiny review of Dog Fouling and Animal Welfare Service.

Timescale for Review

The review of Customer First is scheduled to report to Cabinet in October.

Monitoring

There are no new monitoring reports due for this Committee.