

Children and Young People Select Committee

Update to Executive Scrutiny Committee – 8 March 2011

Update on Progress (including issues/problems/successes)

EIT Review of Youth Services

The review reported to Cabinet on 16 December 2010 and all recommendations were approved. A report on the reconfiguration of the service was presented to Cabinet on 17 February and, in accordance with the Select Committee recommendations, Children and Young People Select Committee will be consulted on proposals for final service reconfiguration together with an action plan for the review at its meeting on 9 March.

EIT Task and Finish Review – Connexions

On 15 December, the Committee received a scope and a presentation on base line information in relation to the Officer led task and finish review of the Integrated Youth Support Services/ Connexions. The Committee received a further report on 26 January 2011 on the review options prior to it reporting to Cabinet in February 2011. The Committee supported the proposal to re-structure the Integrated Youth Support Service as part of the wider EIT review of Early Intervention Grant services with an agreed level of annual savings to be determined. The Committee will also be receiving the scope for the task and finish review of Early Intervention Grants at its meeting on 9 March.
