The Committee met on 16 February 2015 for the final time to consider and agree the final report (executive summary attached).

Review of River Tees Crossing Infrastructure

The full Regeneration and Transport Select Committee was going to undertake a review in February 2015 and report to Cabinet in March 2015. At the tripartite, shared with the conclusion of the above review, it was agreed that to give this subject full consideration the limited time available to this select committee was inadequate. It was subsequently agreed that the committee replacing this committee could undertake this review.
