

AGENDA ITEM

REPORT TO HEALTH AND WELL BEING BOARD

26 APRIL 2017

DRAFT - ADULTS' STRATEGY

SUMMARY

Stockton-On-Tees Borough Council is developing a new Adult Social Care Strategy for the Borough. A DRAFT of the document, which has been developed to date in consultation with colleagues in the Council and externally with residents is attached at Appendix 1. Before the document is developed further, we are seeking the Board's views on the DRAFT document's proposed vision, objectives and the proposed overall approach for the future of Adult Social Care in Stockton-On-Tees. We plan to return to Board with the final DRAFT prior to sign off by Cabinet and Council later in 2017.

RECOMMENDATION

Board to consider the DRAFT Adult Strategy for Stockton-on-Tees and comment on proposed vision, objectives and overall approach for the future of Adult Social Care in Stockton-on-Tees.

DETAIL

1. To progress the Strategy, we are seeking the Board's views on the DRAFT document's proposed vision, objectives and overall approach for the future of Adult Social Care in Stockton-On-Tees.
2. The Council's intention is to simultaneously recommend the Adults' and Children's Strategies to our Cabinet and Council. Ultimately, the two Strategies will share the corporate look and feel of all SBC Strategies.
3. We are continuing to consult with residents and would like to return to Board with the final draft, prior to sign off by Cabinet and Council later in 2017.

FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS

4. There are no direct financial implications arising from this report.
