

EIT Review of Fair Access to Care Services (FACS)

Summary

The Committee are requested to consider and comment on the proposed approach to the consultation that will take place as part of the review of Fair Access to Care.

Detail

1. Members are aware that as part of the review of FACS, there will need to be a comprehensive consultation process. The consultation process will need to be of a minimum 3-month period and it is envisaged that this will begin following the completion of the general election.
2. In order to prepare for the consultation the officer project team has been meeting to develop a range of approaches to the process. Attached to this report are a range of draft documents for Members to consider.

Appendix 1 - Draft Consultation Plan

Appendix 2 - Draft letter, leaflet and questionnaire pack

Appendix 3 – Draft Engagement Strategy

Appendix 4 – Style Guide to be used for all associated materials

3. For the purposes of the planning stage, the documents assume a consultation period of June to August. Members are asked to consider, comment and if appropriate make further suggestions to the consultation planning process.
