1. Endorsement may be clearly stated and included where applicable.
An endorsement is a statement made on a good or instrument which purports to add to its value or to make it more valuable. It may be a simple "pay to" part.
2. Endorsements are stamped and made good whenever necessary
3. Every endorsement by a bank or other person is made for reasons. Read to find out what those reasons are.
4. A stamp is a mark or device used to identify the document and to indicate that it has been processed.
5. Every endorsement is to be clearly written and must be dated so as to be legible. It should be done in ink, unless otherwise directed, and in capital letters. The date should be given in full, month and year. Always use the date to have the stamp placed on the document.
6. Every endorsement must be signed by the name of the person who is making it. This is to prevent forged signatures.
7. Every endorsement on the internet document is required to include the date and time of the transaction.
8. Every endorsement on the PDF document is required to include the date and time of the transaction.
9. No PDF document can change or replace what is written using graphics and type.
