

Please find below the list of press releases for the period from 8th September to 12th October 2007. Copies of the full articles are available from the Community Safety Team.

DATE IN NEWS	MEDIA TYPE	ARTICLE TITLE	BRIEF DETAILS	SERVICES MENTIONED
12 th September	Evening Gazette	'Thieves steal Nazi dagger'	A Nazi dagger has been stolen from a Teesside museum.	Police
13 th September	The Northern Echo	'Bruising case pair walk free'	A mother of five and her 19-year old boyfriend have walked free from court after a two-year old boy was found in Thornaby painfully thin and with 50 bruises on his body.	Social Services
13 th September	Evening Gazette	'Why we've put CCTV in school toilets'	Thornaby Community School defended its controversial decision to install surveillance cameras in pupils' toilets.
13 th September	Evening Gazette	'50 bruises on'	A two-year old boy had 50 bruises and was painfully thin when social workers removed him from his Thornaby home, a court heard.	Social Services
13 th September	Evening Gazette	'Museum security review'	Museum chiefs pledged to look at security after a nazi dagger was snatched from a display case during public opening hours.	Police
13 th September	Evening Gazette	'Addicts crop is hailed a success'	A project to help drug addicts and alcoholics in Stockton find work has been hailed a success.

13 th September	Evening Gazette	'Our say'	Comment on the installation of CCTV cameras in the toilets of a school in Thornaby is a controversial move.
14 th September	The Northern Echo	'School's use of cameras in toilets is defended'	The use of surveillance cameras in a Thornaby school's toilet block to tackle bullying has been defended by the headteacher.
14 th September	Evening Gazette	'Don't forget us'	Angry Yarm shop owners want their streets restored to their former award winning glory.	NES
15 th September	The Northern Echo	'Shoes 'drug message' theory is kicked out'	Council chiefs have stepped in to give a rapidly spreading urban myth that shoes or trainers over telephone wires are an advert for a drug dealer.	Community Safety
15 th September	Evening Gazette	'Readers' backing'	Gazette readers have backed a schools stance on CCTV.
15 th September	Evening Gazette	'Woman, 60, arrested in cigs swoop'	Police arrested a 60-year old woman and seized more than 27,000 cigarettes and £1,100 worth of tobacco in a raid Thornaby.	Police
15 th September	Evening Gazette	'Privacy all in the past?'	Letter CCTV cameras in a Thornaby school toilet block.
17 th September	Evening Gazette	'Its all a myth'	An urban myth is being given the boot by Stockton Council Chiefs in an effort to reassure residents.	Community Safety
17 th September	Hartlepool Mail	'Trainers over cables drug link dismissed'	Stockton Council has issued a reassurance to residents about a rapidly spreading urban myth.	Community Safety
20 th September	The Northern Echo	'Drivers 'put lives at risk''	Motorists are putting lives in danger because they are ignoring temporary road signs in Stockton.	Police
21 st September	Evening Gazette	'Keep out trouble'	Plans have been drawn up to install alleygates on a street in Stockton plagued by jobs, vandals and fly-tippers.

21 st September	Darlington & Stockton Times	'Drivers warned over failure to obey road signs'	Motorists are putting lives in danger because they are ignoring temporary road signs in Stockton.	Police
25 th September	Evening Gazette	'Motorists ignoring road ban'	Drivers are putting lives in danger by flouting the rules at Stockton roadworks.	Police
25 th September	Evening Gazette	'Taxi rank bad management'	Letter regarding taxis and taxi ranks in Stockton.
27 th September	Herald & Post	'Locked out'	Plans have been drawn up to install alleygates on a street in Stockton plagued by jobs, vandals and fly-tippers.
28 th September	The Northern Echo	'Home alarm scheme signs up its 100 th client'	An alarm scheme, run by Stockton Borough Council, that helps people live in their homes longer has signed up its 100 th client.	Care Call
28 th September	Darlington &amp; Stockton Times	'100 clients for home alarm scheme'	An alarm scheme, run by Stockton Borough Council, that helps people live in their homes longer has signed up its 100 th client.	Care Call
28 th September	Darlington &amp; Stockton Times	'Strange shoe throwing craze nothing to do with drug dealers'	Council chiefs have stepped in to give a rapidly spreading urban myth the boot.	Community Safety
28 th September	Darlington &amp; Stockton Times	'Stolen dagger'	A Nazi dagger from the Second World War has been stolen from a Stockton Museum.
1 st October	Evening Gazette	'How can anyone be so disrespectful?'	Incidents of drug dealing, theft and verbal abuse in an award winning Stockton cemetery have led to calls for immediate action.
2 nd October	Evening Gazette	'Cabbie is fined and banned'	A Stockton cabbie has been hit with a hefty fine and driving ban after being caught without an official licence.

3 rd October	The Northern Echo	'Unlicensed taxi driver fined'	A Stockton taxi driver has been fined £275 after working without a proper licence and insurance.
4 th October	The Northern Echo	'Drug driving message for youngsters'	Teenagers in Stockton are to watch a hard-hitting play highlighting the dangers of driving under the influence of drugs.
4 th October	Evening Gazette	'Appeal is lost in drinks case'	The owner of a Chinese restaurant in Stockton is counting the cost of substituting branded spirits with inferior products.	Trading Standards
5 th October	The Northern Echo	'Restaurant owner loses sentence appeal'	A Stockton restaurant owner has lost his appeal after being found guilty of substituting branded vodka and gin with inferior drinks.	Trading Standards
8 th October	BBC News online	'Two arrested in town drugs raid'	A man and a woman have been arrested after drugs valued at up to £70,000 were seized in a raid on the Tilery Estate, Stockton.	Police
12 th October	The Northern Echo	'Play area camera approved despite privacy loss protest'	Plans to install a security camera and 15m mast on an estate have been given the go-ahead despite residents saying it would intrude on their privacy.	CCTV

-  - 27 articles
-  - 19 articles
-  - 16 articles