

Agenda Item: 27
 Safer Stockton Partnership
 29 January 2008

Please find below the list of press releases for the period from 19th November 2007 to 11th January 2008. Copies of the full articles are available from the Community Safety Team.

DATE IN NEWS	MEDIA TYPE	ARTICLE TITLE	BRIEF DETAILS	SERVICES MENTIONED
19 th November	Evening Gazette	'Pushed out'	A terrified disabled resident has told how he is being hounded out of his Stockton home by drug-dealing yobs.	Tristar ASB
20 th November	The Northern Echo	'Youth offending team praised at ceremony'	Stockton Youth Offending Panel won the team award in a series of local criminal justice awards.	YOS
22 nd November	The Northern Echo	'Boy, 12, arrested on suspicion of throwing stones at firefighters'	A Stockton boy has been arrested on suspicion of leading a stone throwing attack on firefighters, forcing crews to withdraw for their own safety.	Fire
22 nd November	Evening Gazette	'Panel's hard work to tackle youth crime scoops award'	Effective work in tackling youth crime has lead to Stockton's Youth Offending Panel being recognised in the local criminal justice awards.	YOS
22 nd November	Herald & Post	'Crime talk'	More than 4,000 residents across Stockton borough have been having their say on crime and disorder (AUDIT).	SSP Community Safety

27 th November	The Northern Echo	'No-alcohol club night for aspiring DJs and MCs'	Aspiring young DJs and MCs can have an alcohol-free club night at The Youthy, Thornaby.
28 th November	The Northern Echo	'Love letters' to cut violence in the home'	Clubbers may find themselves getting an unexpected love letter during the festive season, aimed at DV perpetrators.	SSP
28 th November	Evening Gazette	'Bin and gone'	Thousands of wheelie bins continue to be stolen from Teesside doorsteps every year.	Police
30 th November	Darlington & Stockton Times	'Club night organisers hope to address anti-social behaviour issues'	Budding young DJs and MCs are invited along to The Youthy in Thornaby for an alcohol-free club night.
3 rd December	Evening Gazette	'Rave night battle for budding DJs'	Budding young DJs are being invited to show off their skills at a rave night being held for youngsters in Thornaby.
5 th December	The Northern Echo	'Couple admit selling alcohol to children'	Two shopkeepers have been fined after admitting selling alcohol to underage teenagers working undercover for trading standards.	Trading Standards
5 th December	Evening Gazette	'Pair caught in underage booze sting'	Two Billingham off licence owners have been fined after admitting selling alcohol to schoolchildren.	Trading Standards
7 th December	Darlington & Stockton Times	'Love letter carrying a serious message'	Clubbers might find themselves getting an unexpected love letter this festive season – they are part of a campaign to highlight the problem of drink-related domestic violence.	SSP
12 th December	Evening Gazette	'Rubbish squad tidy up gardens'	Officers from Stockton Council's enforcement team and Care For Your Area will descend on the Parish Gardens to search for rubbish and clean-up graffiti.	Enforcement CFYA
13 th December	Evening Gazette	'Don't let cheers turn to tears...'	Clubbers in Stockton are being targeted by a new campaign highlighting the problem of drink-related domestic violence.	SSP

23 rd December	The Northern Echo	'Pests lead the way on crime'	Stockton Council's community safety team is visiting schools across the town as part of the roach project.	Community Safety
27 th December	Evening Gazette	'A bit troubled'	Letter from Cllr. R. Cain in response to a letter from a resident of Crooks barn complaining of drink fuelled anti-social behaviour plaguing the estate.
10 th January 2008	Evening Gazette	'Dad's vow over Stockton pubs ban'	A man barred from almost every pub in Stockton through the Pubwatch scheme has accused landlords of breaching his human rights.	Police

 - 14 articles

 - 2 articles

 - 2 articles