

National Offender Management Service

Preventing victims by changing lives

The National Offender Management Service operates through providers and partners in the public, private and third sectors to manage offenders in an integrated way. Our work protects victims, reduces re-offending and makes communities safer. What work needs to be done and who does the work is based on evidence and driven by ensuring value for money.

Our Statement of Purpose:

We work to protect the public and reduce re-offending by delivering the punishment and orders of the courts and by helping offenders to reform their lives.

Our Vision

As part of the wider justice service we will give the public confidence in our ability to protect the public and reduce re-offending.

Our Values

In delivering prison and probation services, we will:

- be objective and take full account of public protection when assessing risk;
- be open, honest and transparent;
- incorporate equality and diversity in all we do;
- value and empower staff, and work collaboratively with others;
- treat offenders with decency and respect;
- embrace change and innovation;
- use our resources in the most cost effective way.
