

Proposals for 'Hustings' for PCC Candidates

1. Safe in Tees Valley have now arranged a hustings event for PCC candidates to take place at Teesside University on the early evening of Wednesday 7 November. Two halls are provisionally reserved, one with capacity for 200 and the other with capacity for 400. The event will be chaired by Jim Knight, the BBC presenter.
2. At the time of writing the Labour Party is in the process of selecting its candidate, which is currently between Cllr Jonathan Brash from Hartlepool and Cllr Barry Coppinger from Middlesbrough. It is understood that an announcement on the official Conservative Party candidate is imminent.
