The proposed Variation is to increase the time in which alcohol may be sold or supplied from the current time of 21.00 hours to 22.30hours and to extend the license to so that alcohol maybe sold or supplied from the current 6 days (monday to Saturday) a week to 7days a week (Monday -Sunday). These extensions will also to include the playing of recorded music. we would like the extend the license so that we can open the shop on an evening and weekends for private catering events and small dinning experiences and not for general retail purposes. we are able to fit tables and benches into the shop floor which allows for a maximum of 20 guests at any onetime. The recorded music provision is in regards to low background music played at each of the events, which will not cause any noise disturbance to the adjacent residential properties.

The Proposed variation is also to extend the amount of events at which licensable activities take place from 24 in any one calendar year to have no limit.

All alcohol that is supplied for consumption off the premises will be supplied in a sealed container and a challenge 21 policy will always be enforced.

we would also like to extend the area on the premise plan to which alcohol can be served - please see attached premise plan
