Financial Implications:

None

Environmental Implications:

The Licensing Act 2003 requires the licensing authority to have regard to:

- Public safety; and
- The prevention of public nuisance

Any conditions imposed should reduce the potential for environmental harm.

Legal Implications:

i) Where a licensing authority rejects (in whole or in part) an application to vary a premises licence the applicant may appeal against that decision.

ii) Where an application to vary a premises licence is granted (in whole or in part) the applicant may appeal against any decision to modify the conditions of the licence; and where a person who made relevant representation in relation to the application desires to contend -

- a) that any variation made ought not to have been made, or
- b) that, when varying the licence, the licensing authority ought not to have modified the conditions of the licence, or ought to have modified them in a different way, he may appeal against that decision.

Community Safety Implications:

The Licensing Act 2003 requires the licensing authority to have regard to:

- The prevention of crime and disorder

Any conditions imposed should reduce the potential for crime and disorder.

Human Rights Implications:

As a licence is deemed to be a personal possession Members should have regard to the Human Rights Act when determining this application.
