Let me make this perfectly clear for all to see. All Stockton borough council employees are barred from any premises I own, landlord of or rent. You absolute scum.

So this tosser turned up today as a £100 council tax for the flat was missed in July!!!! He wouldnt leave the pub which is a seperate address altogether and said anyone can enter a public property despite me telling him its currently closed to the public and then to fuck off. So have you 5mins of fame on FB you little dick head and run on back to your desk. Lady on the phone was apologetic and couldnt understand why they had came to my business for 1 outstanding month!

I know why, because it's the shit fucking council. Every single council working who doesn't have any court permission keep the fuck away from me, my properties and business.

Email sent with a little complaint and advised anyone trespassing on my property will be vollied out of the door.

To top it off that planning permission they asked me for, it turns out they never had it themselves all this time for a similar banner on the high street. You represent the fucking area and the people in not your greedy fucking selves.
