Police and Crime Commissioner Matt Storey

Working together to build safe, strong and confident communities.

Introduction

---

Working together to build safe, strong and confident communities.

My first two months in office

Working together to build safe, strong and confident communities.

Why we need a Police and Crime Plan

---

Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011

PCCs are required by law to develop a police and crime plan

The plan must set the strategic direction for policing

It is developed in partnership with the Chief Constable

Consultation conducted with the public, victims of crime and wider stakeholders

My vision

“Working together to build safe, strong and confident communities.”

Working together to build safe, strong and confident communities.

The draft Police and Crime Plan

DELIVER MORE VISIBLE AND EFFECTIVE POLICING

Police understand local concerns and provide a visible and proactive response.

- Protect and enhance neighbourhood policing
- Public contact with police is accessible and responsive
- Technology used to drive innovation and productivity

REDUCE CRIME, ANTISOCIAL BEHAVIOUR AND HARM

Cleveland will be a safer place to live, with less crime, violence and antisocial behaviour.

- Tackle the antisocial use of off-road bikes and e-scooters
- Anti-knife crime education for young people
- Strategies to address business and retail crime

IMPROVE SAFETY FOR WOMEN AND GIRLS

Women and girls in Cleveland will feel safe and supported. Perpetrators will be held accountable.

- Specialist support for victims of domestic and sexual violence
- Making public spaces safer
- Using education to tackle misogyny

Working together to build safe, strong and confident communities.

BUILD TRUST AND CONFIDENCE IN POLICING AND THE CRIMINAL JUSTICE SYSTEM

People have more confidence in the police and wider justice system.

- Establish a public scrutiny panel for policing and crime
- Monitor police performance and positive outcomes for victims
- Involve communities in decision-making and commissioning

ENSURE THE RIGHT SUPPORT FOR VICTIMS AND VULNERABLE PEOPLE

Victims and vulnerable people feel supported and listened to, with access to high-quality services.

- Provide appropriate support for victims and vulnerable people
- Reduce harm caused by homelessness, substance misuse and mental health
- Improved victim satisfaction

TACKLE OFFENDING AND RE-OFFENDING

There is a reduction in offending in Cleveland. Projects will seek to address the root causes of crime.

- Strengthen monitoring of most harmful offenders
- Supporting young people to make the right choices
- Encouraging employment of former offenders

Working together to build safe, strong and confident communities.

My guiding principles

---

Honesty and integrity

Partnership working

Governance and accountability

Victim-focused

Visible in communities

Voice of the public

Inclusive

Working together to build safe, strong and confident communities.
